

Each year the Haiku Society of America publishes an anthology of haiku and senryu by members, edited and produced by an editor or coeditors appointed by the executive committee. Members who submit work are guaranteed to have one poem selected for publication. Editors for 2006 are Roberta Beary and Ellen Compton.

Deadline: In hand by May 31, 2006.

Eligibility: All HSA members.

Submissions: Submit five unpublished or previously published haiku and/or senryu. Poets new to these genres should submit ten poems to provide a better selection. For each previously published poem, if submitted, please include the name of the publication, volume, issue, and year (poems should not have appeared in any other anthology). Submit all poems, typed, on the same sheet of paper (or two sheets for ten poems), and include your name, address, and phone number (and e-mail, if applicable) on each sheet. Include a self-addressed, stamped envelope (or with an International Reply Coupon for overseas submissions) for notification of which poem is selected. Submissions must be made by postal mail only (no e-mail submissions).

Price: $10.00 per copy in the United States; $12.00 per copy elsewhere. Please make checks or money orders payable to 'Haiku Society of America.'

You may preorder as many copies as you want, but the price remains the same for each copy (price includes postage).

Submit poems and payment to: Roberta Beary, 1718 Connecticut Av NW, Suite 201, Washington, DC 20009.
